PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS TO THE
UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE 9th. CIRCUIT

Petitioner, Robert Elias Loera, respectfully prays that writ of habeas corpus be issue to review the United States Court of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit decsion to deny this Petitioner entry into the Courts by way of successive petition which carry the very same arguments presented in original petition presented previously and denied because of the statute of limitations pursuant to the 1996 Act, and that was never rule on the merits of the claims within the petition itself that are colorful and have merits concerning the Petitioner's constitutional rights. (U.S. Suprct OPINION BELOW, U.S. SUPREME COURT RULE 21.1(d)); The citation of the opinion which review is sought in the Honorable Court is the United Sates Court's of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit Order No. 00-70450, filed on May 30, 2000.

JURISDICTION, U.S. SUPREME COURT RULE 21.1(e); Petitioner invokes the jurisdiction of this Honorable Court under 28 U.S.C. § 2241(a), on the grounds that his constitutional rights under Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States

1 Constitution were violated.

2 The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit
3 entered its order rejecting this Petitioner's Fifth, Sixth and
4 Fourteenth Amendment claim on May 30, 2000.

5 CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS, TREATIES, AND STATUTES, U.S.
6 SUPREME COURT RULE 21.1 (f); The constitutional amendments invol-
7 ved within this petition are the (Fifth Amendment "due process")
8 (Sixth Amendment "ineffective assistance of counsel"), (Four-
9 teenth Amendment "due process").

10 STATEMENT OF THE CASE, U.S. COURT RULE 21.1 (h); Peti-
11 tioner filed a Writ of Habeas Corpus with the Superior Court
12 of Los Angeles County and was denied application on June 3, 1997.
13 Petitioner's application contained the following issues; (1).
14 Trial court failed to sue sponte instruct the jury with CALJIC
15 3.02 and 4.21; (2). The Petitioner was denied the effective
16 assistance of trial counsel.

17 Regarding those very same claims, this Petitioner then filed
18 an application with the California Court of Appeal, (90DA1619),
19 and was denied application on July 8, 1997.

20 Petitioner then proceeded with the same issues to the Cali-
21 fornia Supreme Court and there he was denied on November 22,
22 1998.

23 Then on April 7, 1998, this Petitioner filed an application
24 with the United States District Court for the Central District of 25 California. On April 22, 1998, the Honorable United States
26 Magistrate Judge Ann I. Jones, issued an order to Show Cause
27 for the application upon the Respondent, (CV-98-2552 WDK "AIJ").

1 Respondent then filed a motion to dismiss the Petitioner's
2 application contending that the one-year statute of limitation
3 as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) barred the application.

4 On September 21, 1998, Magistrate Judge Ann I. Jones issued
5 her Report and Recommendation, said report declared that the 6 Petitioner's application should be dismissed with prejudice.
7 Thereafter, the Petitioner's petition was dismissed with pre-
8 judice by the presiding judge, Honorable William D. Keller, on 9 October 22, 1998.

10 Petitioner filed an Notice of Appeal on November 24, 1998,
11 from the judgment in the Central District of California. With the 12 Notice of Appeal this Petitioner additionally filed a request
13 for the Issuance of a Certificate of Appealability. On December
14 18, 1998, the District Court for the Central District of Califor-
15 nia denied the Petitioner's request for said certificate.

16 Petitioner then filed for his Certificate of Appealability
17 with the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit,
18 (99-55030) and was also denied of his request on April 1, 1999.

19 Petitioner filed for a Petition of Certiorary in the 20 United States Supreme Court and was denied on October 4, 1999.
21 On October 12, 1999, Petitioner filed a Motion to reconsider,
22 set aside or vacate the judgment and/or order dismissing his
23 petition.

24 On February 8, 2000, the District Court entered a judgment
25 which denied the Petitioner's Rule 60 Motion.

26 Petitioner filed for permission to file a second or suc-
27 cessive petition in the United States Court of Appeals for the

1 Ninth Circuit and was denied on May 30, 2000.

2 WHY NO ADEQUATE RELIEF CAN BE OBTAINED IN THE LOWER COURT
3 OR ANY OTHER FORM, Rule 20.1; No other form of relief can
4 obtained in the lower court for the reason that 28 U.S.C. 2244
5 statute of limitations as ruled in this Petitioner's case is 6 not applicable, by this action taken by the lower courts, this
7 Petitioner believes that he was unjustly denied his due process
8 insofar that the violations that occurred at the trial level
9 which were of constitutional dimensions were set aside and
10 overlooked, overtaken without consideration due to the matter
11 the court where willing and did dismissed the application by 12 simply applying procedural default and not ruling on the 13 merits of this Petitioner's claims of his constitutional
14 violations. Therefore, this Petitioner asks this Honorable
15 Court to make a final decision on the very important question
16 and decision insofar to determine if the statute of limitations
17 procedures for the great writ as written by congress super-
18 cede this Petitioner's constitutional rights as guarantee by 19 the United States Constitution.

20 REASON FOR NOT MAKING APPLICATION INTO THE DISTRICT, U.S.
21 SUPREME COURT RULE 20.1(a); The Petitioner application in
22 the instant matter at hand involves the decision of the Dis-
23 trict Court which dismissed the application and Rule 60 Motion.
24 Such application as presented to the District Court involved
25 this Petitioner's complaint that his constitutional right
26 where violated by the trial court failure to instruct properly
27 the jury and by his counsel being ineffective, yet this court

U. S. COURT OF APPEALS

ROBERT ELIAS LOERA,

Petitioner,

v.

ERNEST C. ROE, Warden,

Respondent.

No. 00-70450

ORDER

Before: PREGERSON, FERNANDEZ and WARDLAW, Circuit Judges

The petition for authorization to file a second or successive 28 U.S.C. § 2254 habeas corpus petition in the district court is denied. Petitioner has not made a prima facie showing under 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(2) that:

(A) the claim relies on a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable; or

(B)(i) the factual predicate for the claim could not have been discovered previously through the exercise of due diligence; and (ii) the facts underlying the claim, if proven and viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that, but for constitutional error, no reasonable factfinder would have found the applicant guilty of the underlying offense.

The motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is denied as moot.

No petition for rehearing shall be filed or entertained in this case. See 28

U.S.C. § 2244(b)(3)(E).
